PART 2—NATIONAL AMBULANCE SERVICE COMMITTEE

Establishment of the Committee

(4) There shall be a Committee called the National Ambulance Committee.

Composition of the Committee

5.—(1) The Committee shall consist of four members appointed by the Minister.
(2) The Permanent Secretary and the Chief Executive Officer of the National Fire Authority shall be members of the Committee and the Permanent Secretary shall be the Chairperson thereof.

(3) Other members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Minister and shall hold office for a term not exceeding three years or such shorter term as the Minister may determine. Such appointment shall be published in the Gazette.

(4) Members of the Committee shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(5) A member of the Committee may resign at any time by giving notice in writing to the Minister and such resignation shall take effect upon receipt of the notice by the Minister.

(6) If the Minister is satisfied that a member of the Committee is unable to perform the functions of that office on medical grounds or is unfit to do so by reason of bankruptcy, neglect of duty or other misconduct, the Minister may remove the member from the Committee.

(7) If a member of the Committee dies resigns or is removed, the Minister shall as soon as practicable fill the vacancy and the member thus appointed shall hold office for the remainder of the term for which the member who is being replaced was appointed.

Duties of the Committee

6.—(1) The Committee is responsible for—

(a) defining the objectives, strategies, and policies to be followed by the Service;
(b) defining operational standards for the Service; and
(c) ensuring the Service performs its functions in an appropriate, effective and efficient way.

(2) The Committee may appoint a sub-committee or sub-committees to perform tasks on its behalf.

Meetings and power to co-opt

7.—(1) The Committee shall at least meet quarterly with three members of the Committee forming a quorum.

(2) The Chairman or, in his absence the Deputy Chairman nominated by the Chairman shall preside at the meetings of the Board.

(3) The office of a member of the Committee shall become vacant if he is absent from 3 consecutive meetings without the approval of the Minister.

(4) The decisions of the Committee shall be by a majority of votes and, in addition to an original vote, in any case in which the voting is equal, the person presiding at the meeting shall exercise a casting vote.

(5) If any member is present at a meeting of the Committee at which a matter is being considered in which he has any direct or indirect financial or other interests, he shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting disclose that fact and take no further part in the consideration of that matter or vote on any question with respect to that matter.

(6) Provided that such an interest, if so disclosed, shall not disqualify the interested member for the purpose of constituting a quorum.

(7) A failure to disclose as required by subsection (5) will result in the member’s vote being invalid and the matter reported to the Minister.

(8) The Committee may co-opt any person to attend any particular meeting of the Board for the purposes of assisting or advising the Committee but no such person shall have the right to vote nor shall be deemed to be a member for the purpose of constituting a quorum.

(9) In all other respects the Committee may establish its own procedures.

2.0 CLAUSES IN THE AMENDMENT

PART 1 – Short Title and Commencement

PART 2– establishes the National Ambulance Service Committee, which is responsible for defining operational standards for the Service, defining the objectives, strategies, and policies to be followed by the Service; and ensuring the Service performs its functions in an appropriate, effective and efficient way. Furthermore the composition of the Committee is also clearly set out within this Part as well as the meetings and the power to co-opt during a meeting.

PART 3 – includes the membership of the National Ambulance Service which comprises of providers of emergency and medical transport services by any person or organisation offering such services.

The many functions of the Service are specified within this Part of the Decree as well the staff of the Service. Honorary Ambulance Officers may also be appointed within the provisions of this Part.

In addition, the Minister may after consultation with the Committee impose a levy or levies upon any person or organisation that he believes will benefit greatly from the services provided. This levy or levies should be gazetted and a failure to pay the levy or levies would amount to an offence. The Minister may by action recover the amount payable under a levy or levies with interest.

PART 4 – includes the Administration and Powers of Ambulance Officers. Apart from the provision on the powers of the Officers it also provides for the protection from liability of these Officers for acts done, or omitted to be done by the officer under the Decree; or acts done or omitted to be done by the officer in good faith for the purposes of this Decree.

The Ambulance Service is also empowered to accept gifts that are given to the Service. Furthermore, the with the approval of the Minister may issue, amend or revoke a Code or Codes of Conduct applicable including those to any ambulance, its operation, personnel, equipment, maintenance, handling of patients in furtherance of the implementation of this Decree.

PART 5 – includes the reporting of incidents within an ambulance, the processing of these reports, the disclosure of these reports and the protection of personnel from liability for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence on his part.

PART 6 – includes the offences under this Decree. This includes the failure to give right of way to ambulances, anyone trying to obstruct Ambulance Officers from carrying out their work and false calls. No Ambulance Officer shall seek or accept on account of anything done in the course of duty in the Service or charge any fee or reward not authorised by the terms of their employment.

A prosecution for an offence against this Decree is to be by way of summary proceedings on the complaint of the Permanent Secretary for Health or a Police Officer.

PART 7 – includes a general provision which deals with an exemption from tolls, the use of vessels and aircrafts as ambulances, fees, the power of the Minister to make Regulation in pursuant to the Decree and the power of the Minister to enter into contracts, outsourcing of services or otherwise as the Minister may think fit subject to Cabinet approval.

SCHEDULE – there is one Schedule within this Decree which contains the form for a Waiver of Service Fees that can be filled by people and signed by the Medical Superintendent.
