§130. Requirement of registration.

It is the duty of all eligible voters to ensure that they are at all times correctly entered in the Register. [P.L. 1980-20, §30.]

§131. Place of registration.

(1) An eligible voter shall be entered in the Register with respect to the electoral district in which, as set out in Section 105(2) of this Chapter, he is entitled to vote, and if he is entitled to a choice of electoral districts, the choice referred to in Section 105(2)(a) of this Chapter shall be exercised by specifying in his application for registration another electoral district in which he has, as specified in the application, another place of residence or land rights.

(2) An eligible voter shall be entered in the Register with respect to the electoral subdivision in which the place of residence (whether the principal place of residence or not) or land rights by virtue of which he was entered under Subsection (1) of this Section is or are situated.

(3) An eligible voter must, if applicable, exercise their choice of electoral district as set out in Section 105(2) upon initial registration. Once registered, a voter may not re-register until after the next general election. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 137, voters may re-register one time only during the period between general elections, except that a voter may register or change registration during the first three years before the fourth calendar year before the general election of the Nitijela. [P.L. 1980-20, §31; amended by P.L. 1992-9, §6, P.L. 1997-42, §2.]

§132. Application for registration.

(1) An eligible voter applying for entry in the Register may present himself at any time during business hours to a member of the Board of Elections for the electoral district with respect to which he applies for entry in the Register, or to a person in that district authorized to administer oaths and shall then and there:

(a) make and subscribe an application for registration verified by oath or affirmation taken or made before the member of the Board of Elections or authorized person;

(2) An application for registration shall be in the form set forth in Schedule 1 appearing at the end of this Chapter, or in substantially the same form as in said Schedule 1.

(3) A member of a Board of Election for an electoral district other than the electoral district with respect to which the applicant applies for entry in the Register, or a person outside the last-mentioned district authorized to administer oaths, may, if for a special reason he thinks it proper to do so, receive and process all application for registration.

(4) Regulations may be made addressing the types of documents or evidence to be required of an applicant. (2) If, after giving the applicant an opportunity to be heard or to bring evidence on the matter, the Chief Electoral Officer is not satisfied that an applicant is entitled to be entered in the Register in accordance with the application, he may reject the application, but otherwise he shall enter the applicant in the Register.

- (a) approve the application and make the necessary entry in the Register; or
- (b) reject the application.

(2) If the Chief Electoral Officer rejects an application under Subsection (1) of this Section, or under Section 133(2) of this Chapter, the applicant may appeal to the High Court which may:
