1.—(1.) These Regulations may be cited as the Firearms Regulations 1923. (1)

(2.) These Regulations are divided into Parts as follows:—

Part I.—Gun Dealers’ Licences.

Part II.—Firearms Licences.

Part III.—General.

(1) The Firearms Regulations 1923 (made under the Administrator’s Powers Ordinance 1923-1938) comprise the original Firearms Regulations 1923, as amended by the other regulations referred to in the following Table:—

(a) Each of the sets of Regulations to which this note (a) applies stated in their respective introductory parts that they were “to come into operation forthwith.” At the relevant dates in 1928-1933, Section 3 of the Administrator’s Powers Ordinance 1923-1938, (under which each of these sets of Regulations were made) provided that “all regulations made under this Ordinance shall be published in the New Guinea Gazette and shall take effect from the date of such publication, or from a later date specified therein.” At the relevant dates in 1928-1933 there was no other Ordinance or regulation of general application providing for the publication of regulations, the date on which they were to take effect, or the meaning of “forthwith.”

(b) Section 3 of the Administrator’s Powers Ordinance 1923, which took effect from 8.2.1923, prescribed that regulations made pursuant to the power contained in Section 2 of that Ordinance should be published in N.G. Gaz. and take effect from the date of publication or from a later date specified therein. Section 3 was repealed by the Administrator’s Powers Ordinance 1938 which came into operation on 24.8.1938. The Amending Regulation of 25.1.1930 was made while Section 3 was operative and stated in its introductory part that it was “to come into operation forthwith”. However, this Amending Regulation of 25.1.1930 was as follows:—

“Regulation 27 of the Firearms Regulations 1923 is amended as from the twenty-second day of December, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, by omitting therefrom the word ‘Crown’ and inserting in its stead the word ‘Administration’”.

Part II.—Regulations made by the Administrator in Council.

(2.) The provisions of these Regulations as to selling and purchasing shall apply also to letting on hire giving lending transferring and parting with possession and to hiring accepting and borrowing in the same manner as they apply to selling and to purchasing and the words “Seller” and “Purchaser” shall be construed accordingly.

3.—(1.) The provisions of these Regulations shall not apply to firearms which are possessed as trophies of war if the owner thereof has given written notice of the fact to the licensing officer who has signified that registration in respect thereof can be dispensed with provided that such firearms possessed as trophies shall not be used or carried.

(2.) The provisions of these Regulations shall not apply to any antique firearm which is bought sold carried or possessed as curiosity or ornament.

PART I.—GUN DEALERS’ LICENCES.

4. Subject to these Regulations a person shall not manufacture sell deal in repair test or prove firearms by way of trade or business or otherwise carry on business as a gun dealer unless he holds a gun dealer’s licence in respect of the premises where he carries on the trade or business and unless such a licence or a renewed licence is for the time being in force.

5.—(1.) If any person desiring to carry on business as a gun dealer and not disqualified as provided in these Regulations makes an application in the form of the First Schedule hereto and furnishes the prescribed particulars the licensing officer may subject to these Regulations issue a gun dealer’s licence to such person or renew any such gun dealer’s licence.

Provided that if the licensing officer is satisfied that any applicant cannot be permitted to carry on or to continue to carry on the business of a gun dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace he may refuse to issue or renew a licence to such applicant.

(2.) Upon application in the form of the Second Schedule hereto the licensing officer may by endorsement transfer a gun dealer’s licence at any time during which it is in force from one person to another or from one place of business to another place of business such endorsement to be in the form of the Third Schedule hereto.

(3.) Every gun dealer’s licence shall be in the form of the Fourth Schedule hereto and shall unless annulled as hereinafter provided remain in force until the 30th day of June next after the date of issue thereof.
(4.) For every gun dealer’s licence or renewal thereof the applicant shall with his application pay a fee of One pound.

(5.) For every transfer by endorsement of a gun dealer’s licence there shall be paid by the applicant a fee of Five shillings.

(6.) No gun dealer’s licence shall be of any force or effect with regard to more than one place of business.

6.—(1.) It shall not be necessary for two or more persons carrying on business in partnership to take out a separate gun dealer’s licence hereunder for each member of such partnership and one such licence may be granted to all the members of such partnership.

(2.) A company may apply for and be granted a gun dealer’s licence.

(3.) Such a licence may by payment of the prescribed fee be granted in respect of the principal office of the company and in respect of each branch or agency of the company on payment of the like fee for each such branch or agency.

(4.) Every company being the holder of a gun dealer’s licence shall be liable for any offence under this Part as if such company were a private person and shall be subject to the same penalties as if it were a private person and if any director, manager, secretary or officer of such company knowingly authorizes or permits the commission of any such offence he shall also be liable therefor and to the penalties or imprisonment or both provided in respect thereof.

7. If any licensee during the currency of his gun dealer’s licence assigns demises or parts with the possession of the premises in respect of which the said licence is in force the said licence shall thereupon cease and be deemed to be annulled (unless transferred to some other premises or to some other person as provided in this Part) and shall be delivered up to and cancelled by the licensing officer.

8. The licensing officer by whom any gun dealer’s licence is issued renewed transferred annulled or cancelled shall cause to be entered in a book to be kept for the purpose the particulars of the issue and any renewal, transfer, annulment or cancellation of the said licence.

9.—(1.) If the holder of a gun dealer’s licence applies to have his licence annulled or if the licensing officer after giving reasonable notice to the licensee is satisfied that the licensee is no longer carrying on the business of a gun dealer or has ceased to carry on such business at a place of business authorized under the licence or cannot be permitted to carry on such business without danger to the public safety or the peace or if the holder of a gun dealer’s licence is convicted (whether before or after the issue of such licence) of a felony or misdemeanour the licensing officer may annul such licence and may for that purpose require such licence to be delivered up to him.

(3) The word “renew” appeared in the Firearms Regulations 1923 as published in N.G. Gaz. The word “renewal” has now been inserted in its stead by the Third Schedule of the Ordinances Reprint and Revision Ordinance 1947 of the Territory of Papua-New Guinea.
(2.) Any licence if annulled under these Regulations shall be cancelled by the licensing officer.

(3.) If the holder of a gun dealer’s licence fails or omits to deliver up his licence in accordance with any requirement of these Regulations he shall be liable to a penalty of not more than Twenty pounds but the annulment of such licence shall be effectual notwithstanding such failure or omission to deliver up.

(4.) Before any gun dealer’s licence is annulled under this section the holder thereof shall be afforded an opportunity of bringing before the licensing officer any reasons such holder may have to give against such annulment.

(5.) Where the holder of a gun dealer’s licence is convicted of an offence under these Regulations the court may annul the licence and order—

(a) that neither the holder nor any person who acquires the business of that holder nor any person who took part in the management of the business and was knowingly a party to the offence shall be qualified to have a gun dealer’s licence issued to him or to have such a licence renewed to him or transferred to any other person or to any other place of business;

(b) that any person who after the date of the order knowingly employs in the management of his business the person convicted of the offence or any person who was knowingly a party to the offence shall not be qualified to have a gun dealer’s licence issued to him or have such a licence renewed to him or transferred to any other person or to any other place of business or if a licence has been so issued or renewed to him or has been so transferred that such licence be annulled;

(c) that the particulars of any annulment under this subsection be entered in the book containing the particulars of the issue or transfer of the licence; and

(d) that any stock in hand of the business shall be disposed of by sale or otherwise in accordance with such directions as are contained in the order.

10.—(1.) Any person not being the holder of a gun dealer’s licence who in contravention of the provisions of this Part carries on the business of a gun dealer or who takes uses or exhibits the name or title of or pretends to be a gun dealer or who advertises or notifies that he carries on the business of a gun dealer or who takes or uses any title or term or sign or symbol which may be construed to mean that he is qualified to be or willing to act as a gun dealer within the meaning of these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence.
(2.) In all proceedings against any person for the recovery of any penalty for such an offence it shall in the absence of proof to the contrary be presumed that the defendant is not the holder of a gun dealer’s licence.

11. If a licensee lets out hires or lends his gun dealer’s licence to any other person he shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction for such an offence such licence shall thereupon be deemed to be annulled and shall be delivered up to and cancelled by the licensing officer.

12. Every licensee shall on demand at the premises upon which he carries on his business produce his gun dealer’s licence to any European member of the police force and in default thereof without reasonable excuse shall be liable to a penalty of not more than Five Pounds.

13. Every holder of a licence shall cause to be painted or fixed and keep painted or fixed over the door or principal entrance of the premises in respect of which his licence is in force in letters of at least two inches in length his name and the words “Licensed Gun Dealer.”

14.—(1.) Every holder of a gun dealer’s licence—

(a) shall provide and keep a register of transactions in the form of the Fifth Schedule hereto;

(b) shall enter or cause to be entered therein the prescribed particulars within twenty-four hours after the transaction to which they relate took place;

(c) in the case of the purchase of a firearm require the purchaser to produce and deliver up to the said holder the firearm certificate entitling the purchaser to purchase the firearm unless the purchaser gives reasonable proof that he is by virtue of these Regulations entitled to purchase the firearm without having such certificate; and

(d) shall on demand allow any European member of the police force duly authorized in writing in that behalf by the licensing officer to enter and inspect all stock in hand and shall on request by such member of the police force duly authorized in writing as aforesaid produce for inspection the register so required to be kept as aforesaid and a statement in writing showing the quantities and description of firearms in his possession for sale.

(2.) Every holder of a gun dealer’s licence shall, within sixty days after the last day of September, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-three and, thereafter, within twenty-eight days after the last day of the months of December, March, June, and September in each year, forward to the Chief Licensing Officer at Rabaul a copy of the entries in the register referred to in the last preceding sub-regulation in relation to the period of three months ending respectively on the last day of each of the months mentioned.

15.—(1.) Every person who knowingly makes or causes to be made any false entry in any register or book required to be kept under this Part shall be guilty of an offence.

(2.) Every person who makes or causes to be made in any such register or book any incomplete or defective entry shall be liable to a penalty of not more than Fifteen pounds.

PART II.—FIREARMS.

16.—(1.) A person shall not purchase a firearm unless he holds a firearm certificate granted under this Part and in force at the time.

(2.) On application in the form set out in the Sixth Schedule hereto the licensing officer shall grant a firearm certificate to the applicant if satisfied that he is a person who has a good reason for requiring such a certificate and can be permitted to purchase a firearm without danger to public safety or to the peace.

(3.) A firearm certificate shall be in the form and shall contain the particulars set out in the Seventh Schedule hereto.

(4.) A person shall not sell to any person any firearm unless the purchaser produces a firearm certificate authorizing him to purchase the firearm or unless the purchaser give reasonable proof that he is by virtue of these Regulations entitled to purchase the firearm without having such a certificate.

(5.) Every person who sells a firearm to a person in the Territory shall comply with the instructions addressed to the seller contained in the firearm certificate produced and shall make thereon the prescribed entries and within forty-eight hours of the sale send the said certificate by post in a registered letter addressed to the licensing officer by whom the certificate was granted.

(6.) A firearm certificate may be revoked by the licensing officer if he is satisfied that the holder thereof is a person who is prohibited by these Regulations from purchasing possessing using or carrying a firearm or is a person of intemperate habits or unsound mind or is otherwise unfitted to be entrusted with or to be allowed to purchase a firearm.

17.—(1.) A person shall not carry any firearm or part of a firearm unless he holds a firearm permit granted under this Part and in force at that time.

Provided that nothing in this section shall entitle any person to have in his possession any firearm not registered under this Part.
(2.) On application in the form set out in the Eighth Schedule hereto by any person the licensing officer may grant a firearm permit to the applicant if satisfied that he is a person who has a good reason for requiring such a permit and can be permitted to carry a firearm without danger to the public safety or to the peace.

(3.) A firearm permit shall be in the form of the Ninth Schedule hereto.

(4.) A firearm permit shall unless previously revoked or cancelled continue until the 30th day of June next following the issue of the same and shall be renewable for a further period of twelve months by the licensing officer and so on from time to time and the provisions of these Regulations with respect to the grant of a firearm permit shall apply to the renewal of such a permit.

(5.) A firearm permit may be revoked by the licensing officer if he is satisfied that the holder thereof is a person who is prohibited by these Regulations from purchasing possessing using or carrying a firearm is a person of intemperate habits or unsound mind or is otherwise unfitted to be entrusted with a firearm.

(6.) For every firearm permit or renewal thereof the applicant shall with his application pay a fee of Five shillings.

18.—(1.) A person shall not have in his possession any firearm (whether the same first came or comes into his possession before or after the commencement of these Regulations) unless the same is registered in his name under the provisions of these Regulations and the registration is in force.

Provided that nothing in this section shall entitle a person to carry a firearm who is not the holder of a firearm permit.

(2.) On application in the form set out in the Tenth Schedule hereto by any person for the registration of any firearm the licensing officer shall in the manner hereinafter provided register the same if he is satisfied that the applicant is a person who can be permitted to have in his possession a firearm without danger to the public safety or to the peace.

(3.) The licensing officer shall register the firearm by causing to be entered in the register in the form of the Eleventh Schedule hereto to be kept by him for the purpose such particulars as are therein mentioned and shall furnish to the applicant a certificate of registration in the form of the Twelfth Schedule hereto.

(4.) On application to the licensing officer the registration of a firearm may be renewed.

(5.) For every certificate of registration or renewal thereof the applicant shall with his application pay a fee of Five shillings.

(6.) No registration shall have any force or effect after the expiration of twelve months from the date of the registration or the last renewal of the registration.
(7.) The licensing officer may cancel the registration of any firearm if he is satisfied that the person in whose name it is registered is a person who is prohibited by these Regulations from using carrying or possessing a firearm or is a person of intemperate habits or unsound mind or is otherwise unfitted to be entrusted with a firearm.

(8.) (a) Any person who gives sells or disposes of any registered firearm to any other person shall send a written notification thereof to the licensing officer by whom the same was registered but nothing in this section shall relieve the donee or purchaser of or any other person acquiring the firearm from any duty of obtaining a firearm certificate or of registering the firearm imposed by this Part.

(b) Any person in whose name any firearm is registered shall within fourteen days give written notification of any change of his address to the licensing officer.

(c) Any person who commits any contravention of or fails to comply with any provision of this sub-section shall be guilty of an offence.

19. A firearm certificate or a firearm permit shall not be granted to and a firearm shall not be registered in the name of or a certificate of registration of a firearm furnished to a person whom the licensing officer to whom the application for such firearm certificate firearm permit or registration is made has reason to believe to be a person who by these Regulations or any law or regulation is prohibited from purchasing possessing using or carrying a firearm or to be a person of intemperate habits or unsound mind or to be for any reason unfitted to be entrusted with a firearm.

20.—(1.) If a person purchases a firearm without holding a firearm certificate or if a person sells a firearm to a person who does not hold a firearm certificate or on the sale to a purchaser fails to comply with any instruction to the seller in the firearm certificate of such purchaser or to make any prescribed entries thereon or to send the said certificate by post in a registered letter as hereinbefore provided or if a person is in possession of a firearm which is not duly registered in his name under this Part or if the person fails to comply with any condition subject to which such firearm certificate is granted or such firearm is registered or which is contained in such firearm certificate or in any certificate of registration he shall be guilty of an offence.

(2.) If a person carries a firearm or part of a firearm without holding a firearm permit or otherwise than as authorized by such permit or fails to comply with any condition subject to which such permit is granted or which is contained in such permit he shall be guilty of an offence.
FIREARMS—

(3.) No offence under this section shall be deemed to be committed—

(a) in the case of any person in the naval military or air service of the King or of the Commonwealth or in the New Guinea Police Force by purchasing having in his possession or carrying a firearm in his capacity as such or in the performance of his duty as such;

(b) in the case of any person carrying on the business of a gun dealer and holding a licence under these Regulations or the employee of such a person—by purchasing or having in his possession or carrying a firearm in the ordinary course of such business; or

(c) in the case of any person—by having in his possession or carrying a firearm in pursuance of any statutory authority to do so; or

(d) in the case of any person carrying on the business of common carrier or warehouseman—by having in his possession or carrying a firearm in the ordinary course of that business; or

(e) in the case of a person whose application for a firearm permit has been refused or whose firearm permit has been revoked or whose application for the registration of his firearm has been refused or the registration of whose firearm has been cancelled—by having in his possession the firearm pending disposal thereof by him or by carrying the firearm in order to sell the same provided that the firearm has not been forfeited and he has obtained from the licensing officer a special authority in writing in that behalf; or

(f) in the case of an officer of the Public Service of the Territory on duty in a locality where danger may be apprehended from natives—by having in his possession or carrying a firearm in the course of such duty in such locality.

(4.) In any proceeding under this section it shall lie upon the defendant to prove that he is a person not incurring the penalty or imprisonment by virtue of the provisions contained in this section.

21.—(1.) Any European member of the police force may demand from any person whom he believes to be in possession of or to be carrying a firearm (except in circumstances where having in his possession an unregistered firearm or carrying a firearm without a permit does not constitute an offence) the production of his certificate of registration or firearm permit (as the case may be).

(2.) If any person upon whom a demand is so made fails to produce the said certificate of registration or the said permit (as the case may be) or to permit such member of the police force to read the said certificate of registration or permit or to show that he is a person exempted under these Regulations from the necessity of having the firearm registered or of having a firearm permit (as the case may be) such member of the police force may seize and detain the firearm and may require that person to declare to him immediately his name and address.

(3.) If any person refuses so to declare his name and address or fails to give his true name and address he shall be liable to a penalty of Five pounds and the member of the police force may apprehend without warrant any person who refuses so to declare his name and address or whom he suspects of having given a false name or address or of intending to abscond.

22.—(1.) Any person—

(a) who when a member of the police force demands the production of a certificate of registration of a firearm produces a false certificate of registration or personates a person in whose name a firearm is registered or to whom a certificate of registration has been furnished under these Regulations; or

(b) who with a view to purchasing a firearm produces a false certificate or personates a person to whom a firearm certificate has been granted; shall be guilty of an offence.

(2.) Any person who when a member of the police force demands the production of a firearm permit produces a false firearm permit or personates a person to whom a firearm permit has been granted shall be guilty of an offence.

(3.) Any person to whom a firearm certificate or a firearm permit has been granted or to whom a certificate of registration of a firearm has been furnished under these Regulations lets out or hires or lends his firearm certificate firearm permit or certificate of registration (as the case may be) to any other person shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction for such offence such firearm certificate or firearm permit or certificate of registration shall be deemed to be revoked and such registration deemed to be cancelled.

PART III.—GENERAL.

23.—(1.) A person under the age of eighteen years shall not purchase have in his possession or carry a firearm and a person shall not sell a firearm to any person whom he knows or has reasonable ground for believing to be under the age of eighteen years.

(2.) If any person acts in contravention of this section he shall be guilty of an offence but no offence shall be deemed to be committed by any person under this provision by having in his possession or by carrying a firearm in circumstances in which an offence would not be deemed to be committed by him by having in his possession a firearm without its being registered in his name or by carrying a firearm without being the holder of a firearm permit (as the case may be).

24.—(1.) A person shall not sell a firearm to or repair prove or test a firearm for any person whom he knows or has reasonable ground for believing to be drunk or of unsound mind.

(2.) If any person acts in contravention of this section he shall be guilty of an offence.

25. In any case where satisfactory proof is given of the loss or destruction of the original the licensing officer by whom the same was issued granted or furnished may on payment of the prescribed fee issue grant or furnish a duplicate gun dealer's licence duplicate firearm permit or duplicate certificate of registration.

26. Any person who is guilty of any contravention of or failure to comply with any of the provisions of any Part of these Regulations for which no punishment is expressly provided or who permits any contravention of or failure to comply with the provisions thereof or who does any act declared by these Regulations to be an offence shall be liable to a penalty of not more than Fifty pounds or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months.

27. Where any person is convicted of an offence under sub-regulation (1) of regulation 16 or sub-regulation (1) of regulation 17 or sub-regulation (1) of regulation 18 or sub-regulation (2) of regulation 20 of these Regulations, the District Court before which he is convicted may order that the firearm the subject of the offence be forfeited to the Administration.
