TRANSFER OF LAND CONTROL ORDINANCE 1924-1930. (1)

An Ordinance to control Dealings with Land.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the New Guinea Act 1920, as follows:

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Transfer of Land Control Ordinance 1924-1930. (1)

2. This Ordinance shall commence on a date to be fixed by the Administrator by notice in the New Guinea Gazette. (1)

3. In this Ordinance, unless the contrary intention appears, "Land" includes any estate or interest in land (legal or equitable) and any easement, right, power or privilege over in or in connexion with land.

4.— (1.) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law in force in the Territory, no person shall, without the approval in writing of the Administrator—

(a) transfer or enter into any contract or agreement for the transfer of any land;

(b) give a mortgage of any land; or

(c) grant a lease of, or an easement, right, power or privilege over, in, or in connexion with any land.

(1) The Transfer of Land Control Ordinance 1924-1930 comprises the Transfer of Land Control Ordinance 1924, as amended by the other Ordinances referred to in the following Table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ordinances Made by the Governor-General in Council.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Short title.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------------------------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transfer of Land Control Ordinance 1924 (No. 17 of 1924)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transfer of Land Control Ordinance (No. 2) 1924 (No. 33 of 1924)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transfer of Land Control Ordinance 1930 (No. 1 of 1930)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2889
LAND—

(2.) Any transfer, contract, agreement, mortgage, lease, easement, right, power or privilege, made, entered into or granted in contravention of this section shall be void and of no effect:

Provided that this section shall not apply to any transfer, contract, agreement, mortgage, lease, easement, right, power or privilege made, entered into or granted in contravention of this section where the Administrator in writing declares that he is satisfied that such contravention was due to inadvertence and subsequently gives his consent to the transaction in question.

(3.) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section this section shall not be deemed to have been contravened in any case where a person enters into a contract or agreement for the carrying out of any of the transactions mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of sub-section (1.) of this section if the contract or agreement—

(a) is expressed to be subject to the approval of the Administrator; and
(b) provides that, unless and until that approval is given, the contract or agreement shall have no force or effect.

5. The approval of the Administrator to any transaction mentioned in the last preceding section shall not, unless the consent in writing of the Minister(2) be first obtained, be given under this Ordinance where, in the opinion of the Administrator, the result or effect of the transaction would be—

(a) that any person would have a legal or equitable interest of any kind in land in New Guinea which land is in the opinion of the Administrator of a value of more than Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, or
(b) that a person having such an interest would acquire an additional interest in land.

(2) Section 4 of the Ordinances Interpretation Ordinance 1934-1941 provides that in any Ordinance "unless the contrary intention appears—"Minister" means the Minister of State for the time being administering the New Guinea Act 1920-1932."