PART II. – ADMINISTRATION.

Division 1.

National AIDS Council.

3. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COUNCIL.

(1) The National AIDS Council is hereby established.

(2) The Council—

(a) is a corporation with perpetual succession; and

(b) shall have a seal; and

(c) may acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property; and

(d) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(3) All courts, judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the seal of the Council affixed to a document, and shall presume that it was duly affixed.

4. OBJECTS OF THE COUNCIL.

The objects of the Council are—

(a) to take multi sectoral approaches with a view to prevent, control and to eliminate transmission of HIV in Papua New Guinea; and

(b) to organise measures to minimize the personal, social and economic impact of HIV infection and the disease of AIDS; and

(c) to ensure, as far as is possible, that personal privacy, dignity and integrity are maintained in the face of the HIV/AIDS epidemic in Papua New Guinea, in accordance with the Constitution and the Global Strategy on AIDS.

5. FUNCTIONS OF THE COUNCIL.

(1) The functions of the Council are—

(a) to be responsible for formulating, implementing, reviewing and revising national policy, in accordance with its objects, for the prevention, control and management of HIV/AIDS; and

(b) to make recommendations and provide guidelines on any issue related to HIV/AIDS to the National Executive Council and, where appropriate, to Provincial Governments and Local-level Governments in accordance with the national policy referred to in Paragraph (a); and

(c) to foster, co-ordinate and monitor HIV/AIDS prevention, control and management strategies and programmes in the country, and to foster their evaluation; and
(d) to encourage, accept, administer and allocate aid monies, whether from within the country or elsewhere, for purposes consistent with its objects, and to account for such of those monies as are allocated to non-government organisations; and

(e) to administer and expend money appropriated by the National Parliament, or raised or received by the Council, for the purposes of the Council; and

(f) to make comment on any proposals to be submitted to the National Executive Council on the allocation and sharing of public funds, aid monies and other resources in relation to HIV/AIDS between national and provincial levels, the public and private sectors and other persons and bodies; and

(g) to consult and co-operate with the appropriate Departments, State Services, statutory authorities and other persons and organisations in Papua New Guinea and elsewhere on matters related to its activities; and

(h) to initiate, encourage, facilitate and monitor the preparation and dissemination of information and educational material related to HIV/AIDS, and ensure that any such material is in accordance with its objects; and

(i) to liaise with and advise Departments, State Services, statutory authorities, health workers and other health and allied services regarding testing, treatment, case management, drug trials, the setting of standards, and other medical issues in relation to HIV/AIDS; and

(j) to initiate, encourage, facilitate and monitor counselling, care and legal services in relation to HIV/AIDS; and

(k) to initiate, encourage, facilitate and monitor research, whether medical, epidemiological, psychological, sociological, legal and otherwise, on or in relation to HIV/AIDS in Papua New Guinea, and to ensure that any such research is carried out in accordance with its objects; and

(l) to advise and make recommendations to the Minister on the operation of this Act and any other law as it relates to HIV/AIDS, and on changes and amendments it considers necessary or advisable to be made to any law in order to promote and further its objects; and

(m) to provide advice to National and Provincial Governments and to other bodies and individuals on the operation of the law in relation to HIV/AIDS; and

(n) such other functions as are given to it under this Act or any other law.

(2) The Council may perform any of its functions in co-operation with a Provincial Government, or with any body established by a provincial government to perform functions for or in relation to HIV/AIDS, or with any other person, association or organization.
6. POWERS OF THE COUNCIL.

The Council has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions, and in particular, may—

(a) enter into contracts, including contracts regarding the expenditure of aid monies; and

(b) acquire, hold and dispose of real or personal property; and

(c) occupy, use and control any land or building owned or held under lease by the Government of Papua New Guinea and made available for the purposes of the Council; and

(d) accept gifts, bequests or devises made to the Council (whether on trust or otherwise) and act as trustee of money or other property vested in the Council on trust; and

(e) subject to the approval of the Minister, borrow money on terms and conditions approved by the Minister; and

(f) establish or participate in the establishment of a body, whether incorporated or not, whether situated in Papua New Guinea or elsewhere, for the purpose of exercising any of the Council's functions or powers; and

(g) require furnishing of information by Departments, other Government agencies and other relevant bodies whom the Council believes hold information with respect to persons with HIV/AIDS status; and

(h) exercise other powers conferred on it by this Act or any other law.

Division 2.

2 Section 7 Subsection (3) amended by No. 97 of 2006, Sched. 1.
8. ALTERNATE MEMBERS.

(1) For each of the members appointed under Section 7(1)(q), (r), (s) and (t) an alternate member shall be appointed in the same way and subject to the same conditions as the member for whom he is the alternate.

(2) In the event of the inability to act of a member, the alternate member has and may exercise all his powers, functions, duties and responsibilities (including membership of a Committee) and this Act applies accordingly.

(3) An alternate member may, unless the Council otherwise directs, attend all meetings of the Council but shall not, except where he is attending in the absence of the member for whom he is the alternate, take part in debate, vote on any matter or be counted toward a quorum.

9. LEAVE OF ABSENCE OF MEMBERS.

The Minister may grant leave of absence to a member on such terms and conditions as the Minister determines.

10. VACATION OF OFFICE.

(1) A member, other than an ex officio member, may resign his office by writing signed by him and delivered to the Minister.

(2) If a member, other than an ex officio member—

(a) becomes permanently incapable of performing his duties; or

(b) resigns his office in accordance with Subsection (1); or

(c) is absent, except with the written consent of the Minister, from three consecutive meetings of the Council; or

(d) fails to comply with Section 13; or

(e) becomes bankrupt, or applies to take the benefit of any law for the benefit of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his creditors or makes an assignment of his remuneration for their benefit; or

(f) is convicted of an offence punishable under a law by a term of imprisonment for one year or longer, or by death, and as a result of the conviction is sentenced to imprisonment or death, the Minister shall terminate his appointment.

(3) The Minister may, at any time, by written notice, advise a member, other than an ex officio member, that he intends to terminate his appointment on the grounds of inefficiency, incapacity or misbehaviour.

(4) Within 14 days of the receipt of a notice under Subsection (3), the member may reply in writing to the Minister, who shall consider the reply, and, where appropriate, terminate the appointment.
(5) Where the member referred to in Subsection (3) does not reply in accordance with Subsection (4), his appointment is terminated.

11. VACANCY NOT TO AFFECT POWERS OR FUNCTIONS.

The exercise of a power or the performance of a function of the Council is not invalidated by reason of a vacancy in the membership of the Council.

12. MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

(1) The Council shall meet as often as the business of the Council requires, and at such times and places as the Chairman directs, but in any event not less frequently than once in every quarter.

(2) At a meeting of the Council–

(a) eight members constitute a quorum; and

(b) the Chairman, or in his absence the Deputy Chairman, shall preside, and if both the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman are absent, the members present shall appoint, from among their own number, a Chairman for that meeting; and

(c) matters arising shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting; and

(d) the person presiding has a deliberative, and in the event of an equality of votes on any matter, also a casting vote.

(3) The Council shall cause minutes of its meetings to be recorded and kept.

(4) Subject to this Act, the procedures of the Council are as determined by the Chairman or the Council.

13. DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST BY MEMBERS.

(1) A member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Council, otherwise than as a member of, and in common with the other members of, an incorporated company consisting of not less than 25 persons, shall, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge, disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Council.

(2) A disclosure under Subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the Council, and the member–

(a) shall not take part, after the disclosure, in any deliberation or decision of the Council in relation to the matter; and

(b) shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the Council for any such deliberation or decision.
14. DELEGATION.

The Council may, by instrument, delegate to any person all or any of its powers and functions under this Act (except this power of delegation).

15. REPORTS.

(1) The Council shall, as soon as possible by 31 March in each year, furnish to the Minister a report on the progress and the performance of the Council in relation to its functions for the year ending 31 December preceding.

(2) As soon as practicable after he has received the report referred to in Subsection (1), the Minister shall forward the report to the Speaker for presentation to the National Parliament.

Division 3.

Committees of the Council.

16. POWER TO ESTABLISH COMMITTEES, ETC.

(1) The Council may, from time to time, establish such Committees as it considers necessary in relation to its functions, in accordance with this Division.

(2) Subject to this Division, the Council shall appoint members (who may or may not be members of the Council) of a Committee and shall specify the Committee's functions and powers.

(3) Where a Committee is established under this section for the purpose of co-ordinating with another body or organization, notification of the establishment of the Committee shall be published in the National Gazette.

(4) A member of a Committee who is not a member of the Council may receive fees and allowances under the Boards (Fees and Allowances) Act 1955.

17. VACANCY NOT TO AFFECT POWERS OR FUNCTIONS.

The exercise of a power or the performance of a function of a Committee established under this Division is not invalidated by reason only of a vacancy in the membership of the Committee.

18. MEETINGS OF COMMITTEES.

A Committee established under this Division shall meet as often as the business of the Committee requires, and at such times and places as the Chairman of the Committee directs.

19. PROCEDURES OF COMMITTEES.

The procedures of a Committee are as specified by the Council or otherwise as determined by the Committee.
20. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE NATIONAL AIDS COUNCIL SECRETARIAT.

(1) There is hereby established a National AIDS Council Secretariat consisting of the following staff—

(a) a Director appointed under Section 21; and
(b) such other staff as are appointed under Section 22.

(2) The function of the Secretariat is to provide services to the Council and to carry out such other functions as are directed by the Council.

21. DIRECTOR.

(1) There shall be a Director of the Council, who is—

(a) the chief executive officer of the Council; and
(b) the head of the service of the Council; and
(c) responsible to the Council for the efficient carrying out of the functions of the Council, and who in relation to policy, shall act in accordance with the policy and directions of the Council.

(2) The Director—

(a) shall be appointed, suspended or dismissed in the manner as is specified in the Regulatory Statutory Authorities (Appointment to Certain Offices) Act 2004; and
(b) holds office for such period, not exceeding three years, as is determined by the Minister; and
(c) is eligible for re-appointment.

22. STAFF OF THE COUNCIL.

The Director may appoint to be employees of the Council such other persons as the Council considers necessary for the efficient administration of its powers and functions.

23. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT.

(1) The Director and every employee of the Council shall be employed under a contract of employment which, in the case of the Director, shall be executed by the

3 Section 21 Subsection (2) amended by No. 97 of 2006, Sched. 1.
Council and by the Director, and in the case of an employee, by the Director on behalf of the Council and by the employee concerned.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the Salaries and Conditions Monitoring Committee Act 1988, the Council shall determine the terms and conditions of employment of the Director and other employees of the Council.

(3) The services of an officer of the Public Service as the Director or as an employee of the Council shall for all purposes be counted as service in the Public Service.

24. CONSULTANTS.

The Council may, from time to time—

(a) after consultation with the Director; and
(b) within the limits of funds lawfully available for the purpose; and
(c) on such terms and conditions as are fixed by the Council, employ such consultants as, in the opinion of the Council, are necessary for the purposes of the Council.
