PART II. – THE NATIONAL TRAINING COUNCIL.

3. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COUNCIL.
The National Training Council is hereby established.

4. INCORPORATION OF THE COUNCIL.
   (1) The Council–
       (a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession; and
       (b) shall have a common seal; and
       (c) may acquire, hold and dispose of property; and
       (d) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.
   (2) All courts, Judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the common seal of the Council affixed to a document and shall presume that it was duly affixed.

5. OBJECTIVES OF THE COUNCIL.
   (1) The objectives of the Council are–
       (a) to foster the comprehensive development of training with regard to the needs and resources of the country; and
       (b) to foster the co-ordination of training institutions so that the most effective use can be made of resources available for training and related purposes; and
       (c) to foster the type of training which ensures increased productivity and capacity building in the work force; and
       (d) to plan and encourage the development of a system of training fitted to the requirements of the country and its peoples; and
       (e) to establish, preserve and improve standards of training throughout the country; and
       (f) to make the benefits of training available as widely as possible; and
       (g) to make the most effective use of resources available for training and related purposes in so far as this can be done by legislative and administrative measures; and
       (h) generally, to augment and support the role and functions of the Commission for Higher Education as specified in the Higher Education Act 1983.
   (2) In pursuing its objectives the Council shall endeavour to ensure that–
(a) due allowance is made for reasonable diversity of training methods, provided that the standards of training achievement are not sacrificed; and

(b) training in training institutions is based on both noble traditions and Christian principles; and

(c) the role and functions of the Commission for Higher Education are not duplicated; and

(d) the role of other agencies involved in training is recognized.

6. FUNCTIONS OF THE COUNCIL.

(1) The functions of the Council are—

(a) to be responsible for supervising and managing the implementation of the National Training Policy and for monitoring, reviewing and revising the National Training Policy when necessary; and

(b) to make recommendations on any issue related to training to the National Executive Council and, where appropriate, to Provincial Governments; and

(c) to provide guidelines to the National Executive Council, Provincial Governments and the Inservice Training Institutions’ Governing Councils on any issue related to training; and

(d) to propose to all parties involved in the management of training ways of making training processes more efficient, the dissemination of information more effective and decision making more relevant to the national interest; and

(e) to set out priorities for the guidance of the State Services and statutory authorities in relation to the provision of people, finance and other resources for training; and

(f) to make comment on any proposals to be submitted to the National Executive Council on the allocation and sharing of public funds, aid monies and other training resources between national and provincial levels, the public and private sectors and unemployed persons; and

(g) to formulate and publish guidelines on human resource requirements, localisation and indigenisation issues, training policies and priorities for all sectors of the economy; and

(h) such other functions as are given to it under this Act or any other law.

(2) In carrying out its functions, the Council shall work within national plans, the framework of programmes of the National Government and its budgets and shall have regard for the resources of the country.
7. POWERS OF THE COUNCIL.

The Council has full powers to do all things necessary to be done to enable it to perform its functions under this Act including power to consult with interested bodies affected by, or likely to be affected by, the carrying out of its functions by the Council.

(3) The Council shall cause minutes of its meetings to be recorded and kept.

(4) Subject to this Act, the procedures of the Council are as determined by the Chairman or the Council.

13. DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST BY MEMBERS.

(1) A member who has a direct or indirect interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Council, otherwise than as a member of, and in common with the other members of, an incorporated company consisting of not less than 25 persons, shall, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge, disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Council.

(2) A disclosure under Subsection (1), shall be recorded in the minutes of the Council, and the member—

(a) shall not take part, after the disclosure, in any deliberation or decision of the Council in relation to the matter; and

(b) shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the Council for any such deliberation or decision.
14. DELEGATION.

The Council may, by instrument, delegate to any person or persons, all or any of its powers and functions under this Act (except this power of delegation).

15. REPORTS.

(1) The Council shall, as soon as practicable after 1 January in each year, furnish to the Minister a report on the progress and the performance of the Council in relation to its functions for the year preceding ending 31 December.

(2) As soon as practicable after he has received the report referred to in Subsection (1), the Minister shall forward the report to the Speaker for presentation to the Parliament.
PART III. – COMMITTEES OF THE COUNCIL.

16. POWER TO ESTABLISH COMMITTEES, ETC.

(1) The Council—

(a) shall establish an Overseas Training Priorities Committee; and
(b) shall establish a Screening and Accreditation Committee; and
(c) may, from time to time, establish such other Committees as it considers necessary in relation to its functions, in accordance with this Part.

(2) Subject to this Part, the Council shall appoint members (who may or may not be members of the Council) of a Committee and shall specify its functions and powers.

(3) Where a Committee is established under this section for the purpose of coordinating with another body or organization, notification of the establishment of the Committee shall be published in the National Gazette.

17. VACANCY NOT TO AFFECT POWERS OR FUNCTIONS.

The exercise of a power or the performance of a function of a Committee established under this Part is not invalidated by reason of a vacancy in the membership of the Committee.

18. CALLING OF MEETINGS OF COMMITTEES.

(1) A Committee established under this Part shall meet as often as the business of the Committee requires, and at such times and places as the Chairman of the Committee directs, but in any event in the case of—

(a) the Overseas Training Priorities Committees; and
(b) the Screening and Accreditation Committee, shall meet at least once in every two months.

(2) Where he receives a request to do so by the Minister or by not less than two members of the Committee, the Chairman of a Committee shall convene a meeting of the Committee within 14 days.

19. PROCEDURES OF A COMMITTEE.

The procedures of a Committee are as determined by the Committee Chairman or the Committee.

20. OVERSEAS TRAINING PRIORITIES COMMITTEE.

(1) The Overseas Training Priorities Committee shall consist of at least six members of the Council and shall include—
(a) the member appointed under Section 8(1)(a); and
(b) the member appointed under Section 8(1)(b); and
(c) the member appointed under Section 8(1)(d); and
(d) at least three members appointed under Section 8(1)(g) to (m) inclusive.

(2) The members of the Overseas Training Priorities Committee shall be appointed by the Council.

(3) The Council shall appoint one of the members of the Overseas Training Priorities Committee to be the Chairman of that Committee and another member to be the Deputy Chairman.

(4) The functions of the Overseas Training Priorities Committee are—

(a) to determine the distribution of places on donor-funded overseas courses between sectors and subsectors in accordance with national priorities; and
(b) to ensure that, where overseas technical assistance is required, its training component is submitted to and monitored by the Council; and
(c) otherwise to carry out the directions of the Council.

(5) For the purposes of Subsection (4)(a), “sectors and subsectors” means sectors and subsectors as referred to in the budgetary and planning documents of the Department responsible for finance and planning matters.

Part VIII of the Public Finances (Management) Act 1995 applies to and in relation to the Council.
PART VI. – NATIONAL TRAINING PLAN.

25. NATIONAL TRAINING PLAN.

The National Executive Council shall, for each year, after considering a report and recommendations from the Council, determine a National Training Plan consistent with and based upon resources available for the purpose.
PART VII. – MISCELLANEOUS.

26. COUNCIL MAY OBTAIN INFORMATION RELATING TO TRAINING.

(1) The Council may, by notice in writing under the hand of the Chairman, require persons engaged in training in training institutions, to supply to the Council, or to an officer of the Secretariat, information, as specified in the notice, relating to training.

(2) A person who—

(a) fails to supply information; or

(b) supplies false or misleading information,

when required to supply information in accordance with a notice under Subsection (1), is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K1,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

27. PROTECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL.

No action is maintainable against a member of the Council for anything which is done by the member in good faith while acting as a member.

28. REVIEW OF NATIONAL TRAINING COUNCIL.

(1) The Minister shall, as soon as possible after the expiry of a period of three years from the date of coming into operation of this Act appoint a Review Committee of three persons, who have such experience as the Minister considers relevant, for the purpose of reviewing and evaluating the work of the Council.

(2) The Review Committee shall examine the work of the Council and its effects from its establishment and shall furnish to the Minister, for presentation to the National Executive Council within a period of nine months after the date of the appointment of the Review Committee, a report containing a review and evaluation of the work of the Council and its effects.

(3) The Council shall supply all information required by the Review Committee and shall otherwise assist the Review Committee in its functions.

29. DEVELOPMENT, ETC., PLANS OF IN-SERVICE TRAINING INSTITUTIONS TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE COUNCIL.

(1) Where, in accordance with any other law, a plan for the development of, or for a training programme in, an in-service training institution is required to be submitted to a Department, that Department shall ensure that a copy of such plan is sent to the Council.

(2) On receipt of a plan under Subsection (1), the Council shall ensure that the plan accords with national priorities in training, and where a plan does not so accord, the Council shall advise the person or body formulating or responsible for the plan of any discrepancies.

30. REGULATIONS.

The Head of State, acting on advice, may make Regulations not inconsistent with this Act prescribing all matters that by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or that are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to this Act including the imposition of penalties of fines not exceeding K200.00 for offences against any Regulation.
