(1) The Board shall by the 30 April of each year, commencing 30 April 1992, prepare and furnish to the Minister a report of its operations during the year ending 31 December together with a financial statement in respect of that year in such form as the Minister approves.

(2) Before furnishing a financial statement to the Minister under Subsection (1), the Board shall submit it to the Auditor-General who shall report to the Minister—

(a) whether the financial statement is based on proper accounts and records; and

(b) whether the financial statement is in agreement with the accounts and records; and

(c) whether the receipt and expenditure and the investment of moneys, and the acquisition and disposal of assets, by the Board during the year have been in accordance with this Act; and

(d) as to such other matters arising out of the statements as the Auditor-General thinks should be reported to the Minister; and

(e) [Repealed.]

(3) The Minister shall cause the report and financial statement, together with the report of the Auditor-General, to be laid before the Parliament within seven sitting days of the Parliament after receipt of the report by the Minister.

(4) When the report or a financial statement of the Board is reproduced for publication or for other purposes, the report of the Auditor-General on it shall be included in the reproduction.

34 Section 25(2)(e) repealed by State Services and Statutory Authorities Superannuation Fund (Amendment) Act 1993 (No. 8 of 1993), s22.
26. CONTRIBUTORS.

(1) Repealed.

(2) This Act shall not apply to contributors to—

(a) the Parliamentary Members’ Retirement Benefits Fund; or

(b) the Judges Pensions.

(3) A person specified in Subsection (1)(a) or (b) who, as at 31 December 1990 was employed by the State; and

(a) was not contributing to the former Fund; and

(b) was contributing to the Public Employees Association Superannuation Fund, may opt, before 1 January 1991, to remain a contributor to the Public Employees Association Superannuation Fund on terms, agreed to by the actuary and the Board of the Public Employees Association Superannuation Fund and approved by the Minister, which provides contributors benefits determined by the same principles as are applied to contributor benefits under this Act and where the employer benefit is based upon the aggregate of the contributions by the contributor plus accrued interest at the rate applied by the Public Employees Association Superannuation Fund and is paid on an emerging cost basis.

(4) Repealed.
PART V. – CONTRIBUTIONS.

Division 1.

Contributions by contributors.

27 - 29[REPEALED.]

30. CONTRIBUTORY SERVICE.

(1) In determining the period of a contributor's contributory service the following periods shall not be counted as contributory service:–

(a) a period during which a contributor does not receive pay, where such period is in excess of one pay period;

(b) subject to Subsection (2), a period during which a contributor is on secondment, other than in a State Service position;

(c) a period during which a contributor is on leave without pay.

(2) A member on secondment under Subsection (1)(b) may have the option of continuing his contributions if the employer to whom he is seconded agrees to meet the contributions which would otherwise be payable by the State.

(3) An arrangement under Subsection (2) shall be as approved by the Board.

31[REPEALED.]

Division 2.

Contributions by employers.

32 - 33[REPEALED.]

34. PAYMENT OF STATE’S CONTRIBUTIONS.

The State shall pay to the Fund the component of any benefit under Section 38(1) that is in excess of the aggregate of–

(a) contributors contributions; and

(b) the contributor’s lump sum benefit as determined under Section 35; and

(c) transfers under Section 31,

and interest credits thereon.

(d) upfront state contribution made under Section 78 of the Superannuation (General Provisions) Act 2000.
PART VI. – STATE LIABILITY IN RESPECT OF FORMER FUND, ETC.

35. DETERMINATION IN RESPECT OF NET ASSETS OF FORMER FUND AND STATE LIABILITY IN RESPECT OF FORMER FUND, ETC.

(1) On the date of transfer of the former Fund under Section 16, the actuary shall determine from the net assets of the former Fund, the amount of—

(a) contributor lump sum benefits, being contributions made by contributors to the former Fund, together with interest thereon from the date of commencement of payments by the contributor to the former Fund, at a rate approved by the Board on the advice of the actuary, which shall not exceed the average rate of interest declared by the former Fund for the years 1988-1990 inclusive; and

(b) liabilities for pension payments under the former Fund which shall be adjusted to allow for increases in accordance with the Consumer Price Index since 1975, but not so as to be increased by more than 250%; and

(c) any surplus after the determination of the amounts under Paragraphs (a) and (b).

(2) On the transfer of the former Fund under Section 16—

(a) the contributor lump sum benefits under Subsection (1)(a) shall be held in the Fund for payment in accordance with this Act; and

(b) an amount equal to the liabilities determined under Subsection (1)(b) shall be paid by the State into the Fund; and

(c) any surplus under Subsection (1)(c) shall be held in a reserve account.

(3) Subject to Subsection (4), the actuary shall determine the State’s liability to each contributor who contributed to the former Fund and who retires after achieving retirement qualifications under this Act based upon the following formula—

where—

“L” = the State liability

“S” = the average of last three years salary

40 Section 34 Amended by No. 78 of 2006, s. 14.
41 Section 35(2)(b) repealed and replaced by State Services and Statutory Authorities Superannuation Fund (Amendment) Act 1993 (No. 8 of 1993), s25(a).
“N” = the number of completed years as a contributor

“C” = the lump sum benefit calculated in Subsection 1(a)

“Z” = the contributor’s age last birthday on 1 January 1991 provided that Z shall not exceed 55.

(4) In the case of a contributor under Section 26(1)(b), the State liability shall be–

Where L, C, S, N and Z have the same meaning as in Subsection (3) except that Z shall not exceed 50.

(5) Where, by virtue of the provisions of this Act, a person becomes a contributor under this Act, and that person immediately before becoming a contributor under this Act, was a contributor to or a member of any other State superannuation or retirement benefit scheme, the actuary shall determine the State liability under that other scheme, whether contributory or non contributory, in order to determine the benefit which would have applied, at the commencement of this Act, had the beneficiary continued to be employed by the State until he had reached the retirement qualification, and the benefit so determined shall be the benefit payable to the contributor.

(6) The State liability defined in Subsection (5) shall be payable into the Fund.

44 Section 35(6) inserted by State Services and Statutory Authorities Superannuation Fund (Amendment) Act 1993 (No. 8 of 1993), s25(b).
PART VII. – PENSIONS AND RETIREMENT BENEFITS.

36A. PROCEDURE ON PRIVATIZATION OF APPROVED AUTHORITY.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), where a contributor is an officer or employee of an approved authority which is privatized, the value of the contributor’s account as at the date of privatization plus the value of State benefit shall be transferred to the superannuation fund of the new employer in accordance with a time schedule determined by the Minister on the recommendation of the Board.

(2) A transfer of benefit under Subsection (1) shall not be effected in such a way as to reduce the benefit which would otherwise be due to the contributor.

(3) For the purposes of Subsection (1), “new employer”, in relation to a contributor, means the person who has taken over the approved authority or that part of the approved authority in which the contributor is employed, and who employs the contributor.

37. BENEFIT ON RETIREMENT.

(1) The benefit payable to a contributor upon retirement shall be determined from the equivalent of a lump sum equal to the greater of:

\begin{align*}
(a) & \quad \frac{(A + C) + \frac{(A + C) \times \tau}{2} + \tau}{S} \\
(b) & \quad \frac{A + C + \frac{(A \times \tau)}{2} + L + \tau}{S}
\end{align*}

where

“A” = the aggregate of the contributor’s contributions plus interest accrued at the Fund earnings rate; and

“C” = the contributor’s lump sum benefit (if any) as determined under Section 35 plus interest accrued at the Fund earning rate; and
