*International Trade (Fauna and Flora) Act (Chapter 391)APPOINTMENT OF SCIENTIFIC AUTHORITY

I, Pius Pundi, Secretary and Conservator of Fauna and as such Management Authority for the State for the purposes of the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES), by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 1 of the International Trade (Fauna and Flora) Act (Chapter 391), and by Article IX of CITES, all other powers me enabling, hereby declare that, it is agreed on principle for the recognition of the National Capital Botanical Gardens as a Scientific Authority on Orchids. It is therefore this purpose that the above Institution is now endorsed and accorded the Status of the Scientific Authority on Orchids with the following agreement and conditions:—

- (a) that the Department of Environment and Conservation agree and implement that the National Capital Botanical Gardens will be the official undertaker of the identification and classification of the orchidaceae family in Papua New Guinea; and
- (b) that the official work will be done through scientific research and co-operation with overseas and National Institutions and their scientists for the benefit of Papua New Guinea; and

- (c) that the Botanical Gardens will supply all aspects of information for the Department of Environment and Conservation on the orchidaceae family when needed for their information, research or correspondence; and
- (d) that, in taking on these National and International responsibilities, appropriate facilities will be set-up to carry out the objectives of the Institution incorporating the Department of Environment and Conservation staff to help assist and be taught on the research of orchids in Papua New Guinea; and
- (e) that all research and information that is to be carried out on the orchidaceae family in Papua New Guinea by National or Foreign Institutions or persons, must go through the correct Institution and procedures e.g. Botanical Gardens, so duplication of research and publications does not occur for the protection of our national asset; and
- (f) that the National Capital Botanical Gardens work harmoniously together with the Department of Environment and Conservation to ensure that the Scientific Institution be totally successful for the benefit of both parties concerned; and
- (g) that the National Capital Botanical Gardens will not undertake commercial export of orchids; and
- (h) that the National Capital Botanical Gardens shall follow procedures regarding exporting of orchids for educational, research, or exhibits by way of endorsement through the Department of Environment and Conservation by obtaining export CITES documentation.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1996.

P. PINDU,
Secretary and Conservator of Fauna.
