SCHEDULE 2. Section 9

SCHEDULE 3. Section 10(2)

Draft of: 7th June, 1989.

THE INDEPENDENT STATE OF PAPUA NEW GUINEAA PROPOSED ORGANIC LAW

entitled

Organic Law on the Integrity of Political Parties and Candidates being

An Organic Law to implement Sub-division III.1H (protection of elections from outside or hidden influence) of the Constitution by making provision for—

(a) the registration of political parties; and

(b) the integrity of political parties; and

(c) the integrity of candidates,

MADE by the National Parliament to come into operation on 1st January, 1990.

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.1. Definition.

In this law, unless the contrary intention appears—

“candidate” means a person who has nominated or intends to nominate for election to the National Parliament and includes a former candidate;

“contribution” means contribution of—

(a) money to the fund of a political party or a candidate; or

(b) kind or goods or services without charge to a political party or a candidate as assistance or electoral expenses for a political party or a candidate, as the case may be, and “contribute” and “contributor” have corresponding meanings;

“endorsed candidate” means a candidate who has been nominated by a political party as that party’s candidate to contest an election with its support, and “endorse” has a corresponding meaning;

“expenditure” includes the value of gifts, goods and services provided without charge as contribution in respect of expenses and living and travelling costs incurred before, during or after an election by—

(a) a political party or, with its permission, express or implied, on its behalf; or

(b) a candidate or, with his permission, express or implied, on his behalf but does not include—

(c) the value of hospitality (including meals, accommodation and transport) of a kind and to a degree recognised by custom in the country or a part of the country in question; or

(d) in relation to a candidate—reasonable costs incurred by him personally for travel and for living away from home for the purposes of the election;

“non-citizen corporation” means a business enterprise or corporation, or an organization, corporate or unincorporate, profit making or non-profit-making—

- (a) of a foreign country; or
- (b) if it is registered or formed in Papua New Guinea—
 - (i) whose total membership or controlling body is largely non-citizen; or
 - (ii) in the case of a business corporation more than 25% of its equity, or the balance of voting power, or the management is in the control of non-citizens;

“political party” means a party or organization having political aims and desiring to nominate a candidate for election to the Parliament, or desiring to publicly support such a candidate as representing its views, and includes its branches and affiliates;

“public funding” in relation to political parties, means appropriation of funds to political parties by the National Parliament in accordance with Section 6 and Schedule 1;

“the Register” means the Register of political parties established under this Law;

“the Registrar”, for the purposes of this Law, means the Chief Electoral Commissioner as appointed by virtue of Section 2(2).

PART II.—REGISTRATION OF POLITICAL PARTIES.2. Register of political parties.

- (1) There is hereby established a Register of political parties.
- (2) The Register shall be administered by the Electoral Commissioner who, for the purposes of this Part, is the Registrar of all political parties.
- (3) The Registrar shall keep and maintain the Register in such manner and form as he considers appropriate.
- (4) The Register shall be open to the public for inspection in such manner, and at such time and place as the Registrar prescribes.

3. Registration of political parties.

- (1) All political parties in Papua New Guinea shall be registered in accordance with this Act.
- (2) A political party shall, for the purpose of registration, lodge with the Registrar—
 - (a) its name and the names of its branches and affiliates; and
 - (b) the location and address of its main office including the locations and addresses of its branches and affiliates; and
 - (c) the names and addresses of the members of its executive or controlling body and the officers accountable for or otherwise handling or managing money and property belonging to it; and
 - (d) such other reasonably related matters and particulars as the Registrar may require in such manner and form as the Registrar prescribes.

- (3) In the case where a change has taken place in respect of particulars required under subsection (1), the political party concerned shall, within three months of the change taking place, advise the Registrar of the change and the Registrar shall enter such change in the Register.

4. Membership of political parties for non-citizens prohibited.

Membership or any association or affiliation of any sort for non-citizens in or with political parties is prohibited.

PART III.—INTEGRITY OF POLITICAL PARTIES AND CANDIDATES.5. Funding of political parties and candidates.

Political parties and candidates shall be funded in accordance with this Part only.

6. Public funding of political parties.

- (1) Subject to Subsections (2) and (3), a political party that has a number of members in the Parliament being a number not less than 10% of the total number of seats in the Parliament is eligible for public funding in accordance with Schedule 1.

- (2) For the purposes of Subsection (1), a member of the Parliament shall be recognised by the Speaker as a member of a political party if—

- (a) the Speaker is satisfied that the candidate was endorsed by that political party; or
- (b) having stood for election as an independent candidate he, after his election to the Parliament, advises the Speaker in writing that he is a member of that political party; or
- (c) in any other case, he advises the Speaker in writing that he is a member of that party, and he is seated with and he consistently votes with and acts with that party for a period of not less than 6 months or, where there are three or more meetings of the Parliament held in such period of six months, in three consecutive meetings, whichever offers the greater opportunity for such recognition.

- (3) Where, a member of the Parliament who has been recognized as a member of a political party in accordance with Subsection (2) withdraws his membership from that party, he shall, for the purposes of this section—

- (a) be recognized as an independent member of the Parliament; and
- (b) not be recognized as a member of any political party he joins for the rest of the term of the Parliament for which he is elected.

Part III.—Integrity of Political Parties and Candidates—continued

(4) Notwithstanding anything in Subsection (1) but subject to Subsections (2) and (3), and Schedule 2(1)(a), a political party that has a total number of members in the Parliament being a number less than 10% of the seats in the Parliament but exceeding 5% is eligible for public funding at a rate determined by the Speaker until the end of the day fixed for the return of the writs for the general election held next after this law comes into operation.

7. Funding of political parties and candidates by other persons and bodies.

(1) Contributions to a political party by a person or corporation other than public funding shall—

(a) in the case of contributions by a corporation or an association, corporate or unincorporate—not exceed K10 000.00; and

(b) in the case of contributions by an individual person—not exceed K1 000.00, in each period of 12 months.

(2) Contributions to a candidate by a person or corporation other than by a registered political party shall—

(a) in the case of contributions by a corporation or an association, corporate or unincorporate—not exceed K5 000.00; and

(b) in the case of contributions by an individual person—not exceed K1 000.00,
in each period of 12 months.

(3) Where a corporation contributes to an individual candidate, it shall not, at the same time and for the same electorate, contribute to another candidate.

(4) Where a political party endorses a candidate for an election, it shall not endorse another candidate for the same electorate.

(5) A person or corporate or organization that has made, or may have made, a contribution exceeding K100 in total or value to a political party or a candidate shall lodge with the Ombudsman Commission a statement containing details of such contribution in such form and manner, and at such time and place as the Ombudsman Commission directs.

8. Contribution by non-citizens, etc., prohibited.

Contribution to a political party or a candidate by a non-citizen or a non-citizen corporation, or the acceptance or receipt of such a contribution from a non-citizen or non-citizen corporation by a political party or a candidate, is prohibited and the offender shall be dealt with under Section 12.

9. Statement of income and assets.

A political party shall, within three months after it has been registered in accordance with Section 3, and thereafter at intervals of 12 months, lodge with the Ombudsman Commission a statement setting out details of its income and assets and their sources, in accordance with Schedule 2.

10. Expenditure at elections.

(1) The total expenditure by a candidate (including contributions from a political party and other contributions) at an election shall—

(a) in the case of expenditure by a candidate for a provincial electorate—not exceed K100 000.00; and

(b) in the case of expenditure by a candidate for an open electorate—not exceed K40 000.00

(2) Within three months after the date fixed for the return of the writ for an election, a political party shall lodge, with the Ombudsman Commission, a statement setting out—

(a) details of all the contributions received by the political party; and

(b) details of all the expenditure incurred by the political party in connection with or for the purposes of the election in accordance with Schedule 3.

(3) Within three months after the date fixed for the return of the writ for an election, a candidate shall lodge, with the Ombudsman Commission a statement setting out—

(a) details of all the contributions received by him; and

(b) details of all the expenditure incurred by him in connection with or for the purposes of the election in accordance with Schedule 3.

11. Holding out, etc., by a Candidate.

The announcement or publication by a candidate, or a candidate knowingly causing another person to announce or publish on his behalf, any matter, without the authority of a political party (proof of which lies upon the candidate), stating or suggesting that the candidate is the candidate of, or has been endorsed or adopted for candidature by, a political party for an election is prohibited and the offender is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Subject to section 12, a fine not exceeding K1 000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

PART IV. — MISCELLANEOUS12. Other offences.

(1) It is an offence for—

(a) a non-citizen or a non-citizen corporation to contribute or agree to contribute to the funding or costs of a political party or a candidate; or

(b) a political party or a candidate to receive, attempt to receive or agree to receive, or benefit from, such a contribution.

Penalty: In the case of an offence—

- (a) by a non-citizen or a non-citizen corporation making a contribution, or agreeing to make a contribution — a fine not exceeding K50 000; or
 - (b) by a political party receiving, or agreeing to receive, or benefiting from, such a contribution, — a fine not exceeding K20 000; or
 - (c) by a candidate receiving, or agreeing to receive, or benefiting from, such a contribution — a fine not exceeding K10 000.
- (2) It is an offence for a political party and a candidate respectively to fail to lodge a statement of contributions and expenditure in accordance with section 10(2).

Penalty: (a) In the case of an offence by a political party — a fine not exceeding K10 000; and

(b) in the case of an offence by a candidate — a fine not exceeding K5 000; and

(c) in the case of an offence by a candidate who is successful at the election — the offence constitutes a misconduct in office to be dealt with in accordance with Part III.2 (Leadership Code) of the Constitution.

(3) Without limiting the generality or purpose of this section, it is an offence for an officer or a member of and executive, or other person in authority, of a political party to—

(a) solicit or accept, or attempt or agree to accept, on behalf of the political party, a contribution from a non-citizen or a non-citizen corporation; or

(b) fail to lodge with the Ombudsman Commission, which is his duty to do, the statement of contributions and expenditure as required under section 10(2).

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K5 000.

13. Illegal practice a ground for disputing election.

Where a candidate—

(a) receives or attempts to receive a contribution from a non-citizen or a non-citizen corporation in contravention of section 8; or

(b) knowingly expends, or allows some other person to expend on his behalf, in an election, an amount in excess of the amount allowed under section 10(1); and the receipt, or attempted receipt, of such contribution, or over-expenditure, as the case may be, constitutes an illegal practice and if the offender is a successful candidate, the illegal practice is a ground for disputing his election to be dealt with in accordance with Part XVIII (disputed elections, returns, etc.) of the Organic Law on National Elections.

Section 6(1)

SCHEDULE 1

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the amount allowed for funding of a political party shall be in accordance with the following formula—

$$\text{CASE A} = .75 P \times N$$

$$\text{CASE B} = P \times N$$

$$\text{CASE C} = 1.25 P \times N,$$

where A is a party with more than 10% but less than 15% of the total number of seats in the Parliament; and

B is a party with 15% or more but less than 20% of the total number of seats in the Parliament; and

C is a party with 20% or more of the total number of seats in the Parliament; and

P is the amount allocated per member for funding of political parties; and

N is the actual number of members of the Parliament in a political party.

(2) The Speaker of the Parliament shall cause to be paid to a political party entitled to be funded in accordance with subsection (1) such portion of the funds at such time and interval as he deems practicable but such intervals shall not exceed three months.

(3) Where a change has occurred in the membership of a political party, the Speaker shall take into account the change in accordance with section 6 and subsection (1) of this schedule and may make such calculations and adjustments in the sums payable to each respective party for such period as the Speaker deems has been effected by the change.

SCHEDULE 2

(1) The statement of income and assets required to be lodged with the Ombudsman Commission by a political party under section 9 shall contain—

(a) the name and address of the political party including those of the party's branches and affiliates; and

(b) the names and addresses of the members of its executives or governing body, and its officers accountable for or otherwise handling money and property belonging to it; and

- (c) the political party's income and assets, and their sources; and
- (d) all the business enterprises totally owned or controlled by the political party; and
- (e) the names and locations of all its current bank accounts; and

- (g) details of all its current loans, debts and liabilities; and
- (h) the name and address of its accountant and be lodged in such manner and form as the Ombudsman prescribes.

- (2) Where a statement is not fully made or it is inadequate or it lacks detail or substance in any particular or aspect of it, the Ombudsman Commission may require the political party concerned to furnish further or better or additional information or more detail, as the case may be, in respect of it as the Ombudsman Commission directs.
- (3) The Ombudsman Commission may prescribe a form for the purposes of the statement.

Section 10(2)SCHEDULE 3

- (1) The statement of details of contributions and expenditure required to be lodged with the Ombudsman Commission under section 10(2) shall contain—
 - (a) in respect of contributors—
 - (i) the full name and address of each contributor; and
 - (ii) the amount and source of the contribution if it is in cash, made by each contributor; and
 - (iii) if the contribution is in kind or goods or services, the kind or nature of each such service or assistance, and its source, including the estimated value of the service or assistance; and
 - (b) in respect of expenditures — full details of all the expenditure setting out—
 - (i) the names and addresses of the recipients of the expenditure; and
 - (ii) the nature and value of the service for which, and the date at which, the expenditure was incurred; and
 - (iii) the amount or value of the expense incurred as electoral expenses on each recipient.
- (2) Where a statement is not fully made or it is inadequate or it lacks detail or substance in any particular or aspect of it, the Ombudsman Commission may require the political party or the candidate, as the case may be, concerned to furnish further or better or additional information or more detail in respect of it as the Ombudsman Commission directs.
- (3) The Ombudsman Commission may prescribe a form for the purposes of the statement.

*National Investment and Development ActNOTIFICATION OF APPROVAL OF REGISTRATION

IT is hereby notified in accordance with Section 55(12) of the National Investment and Development Act that—
(a) under Sections 55(9) and 57(10) of the Act the Minister approved the registration of Cunningham & Associates (in this notification called “the Enterprise”) in respect of the following activity:

I.S.I.C. No. 8321— Legal Services:

subject to the conditions specified in the Schedule; and

(b) by virtue of the provisions of Sections 55(11)(a) and 57(12)(a) of the Act NIDA registered the Enterprise; and

(c) the Enterprise was registered on 4th August, 1988.

NOTIFICATION TO AN ENTERPRISE

To: Cunningham & Associates (“the Enterprise”)

You are hereby notified in accordance with Section 57(7)(b) that it is proposed to register you in accordance with the provisions of the Act to carry on business in Papua New Guinea in the following activity:

I.S.I.C. No. 8321— Legal Services:

subject to the laws of Papua New Guinea and to the conditions contained in Part II of the said Schedule.

SCHEDULEConditions of Registration—Cunningham & Associates.

1. The registration of the Enterprise shall be granted for a period of ten years commencing on the date of registration.

2. The right to carry on business in an activity in respect of which the Enterprise is registered may be terminated or suspended by the Minister by not less than one year prior written notice to the Enterprise. Such notice shall not be given before the fourth anniversary of the date of registration.

3. The following provision shall be made by the Enterprise for Papua New Guinea investment in, and participation in the ownership, management and control of the Enterprise:

(i) Within five years from the date of commencement a 26% equity in the Enterprise is to be beneficially owned by an automatic citizen or citizens of Papua New Guinea or by a local enterprise as that term is defined in Section 2 of the National Investment and Development Act (Chapter 120).

4. The Enterprise shall not without the prior approval of the Minister establish a place of business in any location in Papua New Guinea other than Port Moresby, N.C.D.

5. If the Enterprise has not at the expiration of six months from the date of registration commenced carrying on business in any of the activities for which it is hereby registered, it shall not thereafter commence such activity without the prior written consent of NIDA.

6. The Enterprise shall keep all its books of account and other financial records in Papua New Guinea in the English language.

7. The Enterprise will comply with all and any obligations and conditions relating to the training of citizens and the localisation of its staff (including both employees and officers of the Enterprise) which may from time to time be laid down by the Secretary for the Department of Labour and Employment (or any other Department which succeeds to the functions of that Department) or prescribed or declared under the Employment of Non-Citizens Act (Chapter 274) or any other Act in force from time to time dealing with training and localisation of staff.

8. The Enterprise shall guide and assist Papua New Guinea enterprises in activities ancillary to the registered activity.

9. The Enterprise shall use supplies and services (particularly in relation to subcontracting) available within Papua New Guinea, preferably provided by Papua New Guineans provided that such supplies and services are readily available at prices and of a quality similar to those obtainable from other sources.

10. The Enterprise shall at all times conduct its operations in such a way as to minimise deleterious effects on the environment and shall abide by any reasonable standards specified by the Minister responsible for environmental matters.

11. Any application by the Enterprise to the Minister with regard to any of the foregoing conditions shall be made in writing to the Executive Director of NIDA.

The Enterprise should note that Sections 4(3) and 5 of the National Investment and Development Authority Act (Chapter 120) provide that NIDA registration in respect of a particular activity does not of itself relieve the Enterprise from compliance with any other law and no condition of registration confers on an enterprise any right or privilege in relation to a matter that is the subject of any other law.

Dated this 30th day of September, 1988.

P. MALARA,
Secretary, NIDA Board.

1. The registration of the Enterprise shall be granted for a period of ten years commencing on the date of registration (“from the date of commencement”).

2. The right to carry on business in an activity in respect of which the Enterprise is registered may be terminated or suspended by the Minister by not less than one year prior written notice to the Enterprise. Such notice shall not be given before the fourth anniversary of the date of registration.

3. The following provision shall be made by the Enterprise for Papua New Guinea investment in, and participation in the ownership, management and control of the Enterprise:

- (i) As from the date of registration a 50% equity in the Enterprise is to be beneficially owned by an automatic citizen or citizens of Papua New Guinea or by a local enterprise as that term is defined in Section 2 of the National Investment and Development Act (Chapter 120).

4. The Enterprise shall not without the prior approval of the Minister establish a place of business in any location in Papua New Guinea other than Port Moresby, N.C.D.

5. If the Enterprise has not at the expiration of six months from the date of registration commenced carrying on business in any of the activities for which it is hereby registered, it shall not thereafter commence such activity without the prior written consent of NIDA.

6. The Enterprise shall keep all its books of account and other financial records in Papua New Guinea in the English language.

7. The Enterprise will comply with all and any obligations and conditions relating to the training of citizens and the localisation of its staff (including both employees and officers of the Enterprise) which may from time to time be laid down by the Secretary for the Department of Labour and Employment (or any other Department which succeeds to the functions of that Department) or prescribed or declared under the Employment of Non-Citizens Act (Chapter 274) or any other Act in force from time to time dealing with training and localisation of staff.

8. The Enterprise shall guide and assist Papua New Guinea enterprises in activities ancillary to the registered activity.

9. The Enterprise shall use supplies and services (particularly in relation to subcontracting) available within Papua New Guinea, preferably provided by Papua New Guineans provided that such supplies and services are readily available at prices and of a quality similar to those obtainable from other sources.

10. The Enterprise shall at all times conduct its operations in such a way as to minimise deleterious effects on the environment and shall abide by any reasonable standards specified by the Minister responsible for environmental matters.

11. Any application by the Enterprise to the Minister with regard to any of the foregoing conditions shall be made in writing to the Executive Director of NIDA.

The Enterprise should note that Sections 4(3) and 5 of the National Investment and Development Authority Act (Chapter 120) provide that NIDA registration in respect of a particular activity does not of itself relieve the Enterprise from compliance with any other law and no condition of registration confers on an enterprise any right or privilege in relation to a matter that is the subject of any other law.
